* In parallel with the RC³ forum, the IFRC extraordinary Governing Board (newly elected) meeting will take place in the morning and the Standing Committee meeting will take place in the afternoon.
IFRC members express their ownership on the organisation and guide their secretariat.

IFRC revitalises its “raison d'être”. Members feel part of the same family and renew their mutual commitment towards the organisation and each other.

IFRC and all member National Societies stand by the commitment made to protecting lives and alleviating suffering of those living through natural disasters, poverty, violence and hardship.

IFRC benchmarks itself against existing humanitarian standards and reconfirms its leadership in this field.

Vision for the Movement (adopted by 2015 CoD)

Future trends impacting people and humanitarian action

Working as a Movement to better anticipate and respond to crises

Major humanitarian issues of today
What must the Movement do now to be able to respond to the crises of the future through principled humanitarian action?

How can the Movement make most use of its influence at community and global levels to influence the direction of future trends?
