

CICR

The environment : state sovereignty, human rights, and armed conflict / Johan D. van der Vyver

Document type:	Article
Title:	The environment : state sovereignty, human rights, and armed conflict
Author zone:	Johan D. van der Vyver
Host item entries:	Emory international law review,
Languages:	English
	Photocopies
Abstract:	This essay attempts to trace current developments in international environmental law with reference to four particular themes : (a) Tensions between state sovereignty and enforcement of international norms for the protection of the natural environment; (b) Protection of the natural environment as a particular manifestation of international human rights law; (c) Environmental protection within the confines of the laws and customs of armed conflict; and (d) Criminal sanctions as a means of enforcement of international obligations pertaining to the natural environment.
Authors:	Van Der Vyver, Johan D.
Keyword in English:	ENVIRONMENT ARMED CONFLICT HUMAN RIGHTS IHL (INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN LAW) INDEPENDENCE OF A STATE
Keyword in French:	ENVIRONNEMENT CONFLIT ARME DROITS HUMAINS DIH INDEPENDANCE D'UN ETAT

Call number	Disposability / Due date
358/110 (Br.)	Available