Abstract:	This paper is intended to understand the position/objections of the India during the drafting of Additional Protocols of the Geneva Conventions. How far these objections were taken into consideration by the Diplomatic Conference? Concerns of India during the drafting of Additional Protocols herein have not been presented in chronological order of the discussions instead attempt has been made to understand the India's stand on these Protocols. Are the reasons advanced for non-ratification valid even today? in what ways will the legal situation change in India were she to become a party to the Additional Protocols to the Geneva Conventions? Is it possible to develop some mechanisms/ways to ratify the Additional Protocols and simultaneously to protect the security/interest of India?
