

CICR

Covid-19 and international humanitarian law / ICRC

Document type:	Book
Title:	Covid-19 and international humanitarian law
Author zone:	ICRC
Editor:	[Geneva] : [ICRC], April 2020
Physical description:	[2] p. : ill.
General Note:	Factsheet published by the ICRC to present the IHL provisions most relevant during the 2020 coronavirus pandemic.
Language(s):	eng
Abstract:	COVID-19 represents a dramatic new threat to life in war-torn countries. International humanitarian law (IHL) is a key legal framework that provides crucial safeguards to people affected by armed conflicts. This overview summarizes some of the main provisions of IHL that may be particularly relevant during the COVID-19 pandemic.
Keyword in French:	CONFLIT ARME DIH EPIDEMIE 2020 DIFFUSION
Keyword in English:	ARMED CONFLICT IHL (INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN LAW) EPIDEMIC 2020 DISSEMINATION
Authors:	CICR

Call number	Disposability / Due date
PDF	Not for loan