

CICR

Applying human rights law in the extraterritorial war against terrorism : too little, too much, or just right ? : application of human rights treaties extraterritorially to detention of combatants and security internees : fuzzy thinking all around ?

Document type:	Article
Title:	Applying human rights law in the extraterritorial war against terrorism : too little, too much, or just right ? : application of human rights treaties extraterritorially to detention of combatants and security internees : fuzzy thinking all around ?
Author zone:	Michael J. Dennis
Host item entries:	ILSA journal of international and comparative law,
Languages:	English
	Photocopies
Authors:	Dennis, Michael J.
Keyword in English:	IHL (INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN LAW) HUMAN RIGHTS TERRORISM DEPRIVATION OF LIBERTY COMBATANT SECURITY DETAINEE ARMED CONFLICT MILITARY OCCUPATION STATE RESPONSIBILITY INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL COURT
Keyword in French:	DIH DROITS HUMAINS TERRORISME PRIVATION DE LIBERTE COMBATTANT DETENU DE SECURITE CONFLIT ARME OCCUPATION MILITAIRE RESPONSABILITE D'ETAT COUR PENALE INTERNATIONALE

Call number	Disposability / Due date
345.1/543 (Br.)	Available